

Comprehension/Knowledge Building, Grade 2- 3

Conclusion

Students become strong readers through vocabulary building, strategy and skill instruction, and taking personal responsibility for their reading. While comprehension is the ultimate goal of reading, it is far more than understanding text. Comprehension allows students to connect information across texts to build their knowledge.