

Homes on the Move

Some people are always moving from place to place. They build simple homes wherever they go.

26

They can build their homes quickly. These homes are simple but sturdy. 7

27

Student Reader, Book 2, pp. 26–27

★ 8 Asking Questions Teacher Prompt: The header for these pages is Homes on the Move. My home isn't big, but it would be difficult to move because it is built into the ground. I have a question: What kinds of homes are these "homes on the move"? Does this header make you think of any questions? Possible Student Response Why do these people have to move?

9 Answering Questions Teacher Prompt: These people need portable homes because they have to move all the time. The text says they can build their homes quickly. What answers does the text provide about homes on the move? Possible Student Responses Some people need portable homes because they are always moving to new places. The text did not answer my question about why these people have to move.

Comprehension Check

Where is the clay house built? in the desert

Teacher Tips

GLOSSARY The words clay (page 24) and simple (page 26) can be found in the Glossary.

SELF-EVALUATE As students begin reading on the second day, pause often to make sure they constantly evaluate their understanding of what they read.

Phonics and Fluency

/ē/ spelled e_e: these (page 27)

/ē/ spelled _y: sturdy (page 27)