

Some of these homes are made of sticks and branches. Others are made of blankets.

These homes keep people safe from wind and sand. They are also easy to pick up and move. 8

28

Your Home

People live in different kinds of homes. What is your home like? 9

29

Student Reader, Book 2, pp. 28–29

Phonics and Fluency

/ē/ spelled e_e: these (page 28)

/e/ spelled e: blankets (page 28)

/ē/ spelled ee: keep (page 28)

/ē/ spelled ea: easy (page 28)

/ē/ spelled _y: easy (page 28)

Vocabulary Tip

Have students reread page 27. Then have a volunteer explain the meaning of simple.

Comprehension Strategies

★ 10 Asking Questions Teacher Modeling: Why are these homes made of sticks or blankets? Let's continue reading to see if we can find the answer.

11 Answering Questions Teacher Prompt: Okay. The text provides the answers here. The second paragraph tells the reasons people use sticks or blankets to build their homes. Possible Student Response These homes are easy to move, and they keep people safe from the wind and sand.

Comprehension Check

What are some of the things used to make homes on the move? blankets, sticks