

Dictation and Spelling, Grade 1

Dictation and spelling activities encourage children to use the phonics knowledge they are developing to help them spell words correctly. In this course, first grade teacher Candice Foster demonstrates exemplary teaching of dictation and spelling techniques to help children practice using phonics skills to encode (spell) as well as decode (read).