

Dictation and Spelling, Grade 1

Introduction

This course shows how first grade teachers can use dictation and spelling (encoding) to develop a spelling strategy using sounds and spellings that children have learned. Dictation provides a model for the kind of thinking involved when children attempt to spell words independently.