

Comprehension Strategies

Introducing Strategy Use

Teacher Modeling

1 Predicting The first sentence tells me that wind is always changing. What do you predict this selection will be about? I predict that we are going to read about all the different things that wind does. I'll read on to find out if my prediction is confirmed.

Teacher Tip CONFIRMING PREDICTIONS Be sure to confirm all predictions when you reach the appropriate place in the text. Also, consider writing down all predictions so you can refer to them throughout the selection.

Focus Questions How can the wind change?
Why is the wind important to us?

What Happens When Wind Blows?

by Daphne Butler

Wind and Weather

Wind is always changing. It brings rain, dries the wash, and makes your ears cold in the winter. 1

24

Reading 1.2