

Wind Clouds

High above, thin wisps of clouds show that the weather is changing. 3

Soon a wind will blow. Tomorrow, the sky may be cloudy. Perhaps it will rain.

27

Smoke from chimneys is swept away by the breeze, and kites soar in the wind. Sailboats begin to glide through the water.

Print and Book Awareness

Initial /s/ Reading 1.11, 1.14; Listen/Speak 1.1

Reread page 29, stressing the words that begin with the /s/ sound (Smoke, swept, soar, Sailboats). Have students come to the Big Book and point to words beginning with the letter that represents the /s/ sound. As a student points to the letter s, have the class say the /s/ sound.
